Saturday, August 4. 1792.

THE following Address has been presented to His Majesty by Sir John D'Oyley, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Townshend one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.
Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Deputy-Lieutenants, and Gentlemen of the Grand Jury, assembled at the Assizes held at Oxford on the 11th Day of July, 1792, most humbly beg Leave to take this first Opportunity to join with all honest Britons in our hearty Congratulation to your Majesty upon the reasonable and happy Discovery of the late Plot against your Majesty's Person and Government, and at the same time to declare our sincere Abhorrence and Detestation of the continued mischievous Practices of an insatuated Party amongst us, who have ever been restless in their Endeavours to deprive us of all the Consequences of the glorious Revolution, which by God's wonderful Providence extended its Blessings to all Europe in general, as well as to us of these Nations; amongst which Blessings, we esteem in the first Rank, the Glory and Happiness we enjoy under your Majesty's most auspicious, mild, and truly princely Government, with a Prospect of a long Descent (and Oh may it continue as long as Time itself) of Kings from your Loyns, that may rule the People according to your Royal Example, and prove real Defenders, like your self, of the true Evangelical Faith.

It is no Matter of Wonder to us, that the bigoted Slaves to the Church of Rome should employ their utmost Endeavours to defeat these Views; but nothing can be more amazing than the Folly and Madness of those who call themselves Protestants, and at the same time imagine the Protestant Religion can be protected by a Popish Government.

Would these deluded Men look back upon the many Disappointments of the secret and horrid Contrivances of our Enemies, and the long Series of Successes in open War, with which the gracious Providence of God has blessed these Nations, they would find the Interpositions of the divine Power in our Preservation for above Thirty Years last past, almost as many and remarkable as even the Jews themselves could ever boast in the same Course of Time; would they consider what Respect your Majesty's consummate Wisdom, and firm Adherence to your Alliances have procured you Abroad; would they with equal Eyes see you surrounded by the most able and vigilant Council and Ministry; would they reflect upon the impartial Execution of the Laws in all your Courts of Justice, the Intrepidity and Fidelity of your Troops, and above all, your incomparable Care of this National Church, in the Promotion of Men of the best Learning and greatest Worth, they would cease to contend against their own Interest, and with us unfeignedly offer up their Praises to God for the invaluable Blessing of your Majesty's Life and most gracious Government over us. May the Continuance of which exceed that of any of your Predecessors, and remain in your Majesty's Royal Line till Time shall be no more.

London, August 4.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from France.

Lisbon, July 2. A Portuguese Man of War, named our Lady of Victory, commanded by M. Tooft, a Hollander, sailed from hence the 24th past for O Porto, where the Captain is ordered to join the Ships bound to the Rio de Janeiro that are to sail under his Convoys to a certain Latitude, the Man of War being afterwards to proceed to the Tercera Islands to wait the Arrival of the Fleet from Fernambucca. On the 30th past, the Queen diverted herself with going upon this River in her Royal Barge. The King went the same Day to see a Bull-Fight at Odivellas, and afterwards met the Queen at the House of the Marquess de Maria-Ayres one of the Noblemen of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber, where her Majesty had dined. The King has appointed the Count de St. Croix to execute the Functions of Major-Domo, in the room of his Father the Marquess de Gouvea, whose Age and Infirmities prevent him from coming to Court. On the 28th past, the Conde de Esceira went to the Palace to observe with Don Francisco the King's Brother an Eclipse of the Moon which happened here the 28th past at Night, beginning at 11 o'Clock 44 Minutes 12 Seconds, and ended at 3 o'Clock 17 Minutes and 12 Seconds in the Morning.

Naples, July 7. Cardinal Althan is perfectly recovered from his late Indisposition, and was present this Week in the Collateral Council, where he made several new Regulations which he designs to be made publick. His Eminency taking the Air some Evenings ago at the Chiaia, sent to the Prince d'Avellino to have her Coach stop till his Eminency's passed by; the Princess not perceiving how her Coach could any way incommode the Cardinal's, thought herself not obliged to this Ceremonial; but the Cardinal caused her Servants to be attacked, and her Horses turned out of the way; which Proceeding has greatly disgusted the Ladies and Noblemen of this City, of whom neither the Cardinal de Schrottenbach nor the Prince Borghese ever exacted such a Mark of Distinction. The Prince d'Avellino, Spouse of this Princess, is newly returned hither from Vienna, and has been congratulated on his Arrival by the Nobility, who resort in great Numbers to his Palace.

Rome, July 14. A Private Consistory was held the 6th Instant at the Quirinal, in which several vacant Benefices were disposed of by the Pope at the Recommendation of the Cardinals. At the Conclusion of the Consistory the Pope granted the Pallium to the Abbe de Rohan for the Archbishoprick of Rheims, and likewise the Dispensation for his Age, Gratis. Sig. Aldrovandi, late Nuncio in Spain, is permitted to resume his Functions of Auditor de Rota. On the 12th Instant an extraordinary Congregation of Immunity was held on Occasion of the News just received here, that a certain Person who retired upon a Criminal Account to a Church in Naples, was killed there by Order of Cardinal Althan; but no Resolution was taken on this Affair. No Advices are yet received that the Turks have attempted any thing at Malta.

Paris, Aug. 8. It is assured, that the King has granted Letters Patents for the Establishment of two Universities, one at Dijon, and the other at Pau. The King's own Regiment of Horse is expected to arrive the 16th Instant at Versailles, and encamp there till his Majesty's Departure for Rheims; this Regiment is to be new cloath'd, and will attend the King throughout his Journey. It is now reported, that the Grand Signior's Fleet having entered the Maheze Channel, and advanced within Sight of the Island, has put back without committing any Hostility, and is said to have returned towards the Coast of Italy. On the 16th Instant in the Morning, the Marquess de Sallan rode the Course he had engaged to perform by Wager; he set out precisely by Six a Clock from St. Dennis's Gate, where the Duke of Bourbon, the Count de Charolois, and a great Number of the Nobility were assembled; he returned the first Time from Chantilly at three Quarters past Eight a Clock, and came back the second Time at Eleven a Clock and 33 Minutes; he had done it sooner, had he not changed his Horse 20 Times instead of 18, as he designed, being obliged once to take a Horse belonging to the Duke of Bourbon's Guard, and afterwards another belonging to a Farmer. Nevertheless the Marquis rode the 36 Leagues in 3 Hours 33 Minutes, and won the Wager by 27 Minutes, although it continued raining the whole Course, which as soon as he had performed he went to Bed at a Lemonade House, and rested till Three a Clock in the Afternoon; he went to Dinner afterwards in the Suburbs of St. Laurens, where a noble Entertainment was prepared on this Occasion for several Noblemen and Ladies. The Marquis de Sallabré is going to be married to Mademoiselle de Maulevrier Colbert, the designed Match between him and Mademoiselle de Coetmadue is broke off. Several Soldiers taking the present Opportunity to desert, in Hopes, as 'tis supposed, of being included in the General Pardon at the King's Coronation, an Ordinance of his Majesty is therefore printing, wherein Declaration is made, that no such Grace shall be allowed to Deserters, and that they shall be every where prosecuted with the utmost Rigour of the Law. Sig. Maffei, the Pope's Extraordinary Nuncio at this Court, is appointed to reside here in Quality of Nuncio in Ordinary. It is reported, that the young Count de Rambures will shortly be released from the Bastille, and that the other young Noblemen who were commanded to retire from Court, will also be allowed to come back thither. The Princess de Rohan has been dangerously ill at Versailles, but begins to be somewhat better. Certificates of Liquidation are fallen again to 16 Livres, and Actions to 800.
